

TESTER PROGRAM POLICY

How it works

Many customers like to examine a product carefully before purchasing, which includes how it feels. For Sexy Living customers who are investing in a product line and would like a tester as an aid to help sell them more product, they may be eligible to receive a free tester if available. For example, if a Sexy Living customer purchases roughly $250 of a specific line where testers are available, that entitles them to a free tester. The amount differs and is dependent on the expense of the line. If the tester information does not appear in the main description, click the "More info" link to see if the tester information is displayed. Generally, only 1 specific tester is offered per brick & mortar store per year. Testers do not come with packaging or instructions.
